Statement From Rockland County Legislature Chairman Alden H. Wolfe

New City, NY (April 14, 2016) – “Any time an elected official is charged with a crime that betrays public trust, we all suffer. Such actions chip away at the public’s confidence in good government.

“The legal process will now play out. In the meantime, taxpayers are concerned about how they might be impacted by the town’s finances. An independent review is absolutely necessary. Ultimately, today’s events remind us that there is zero tolerance for misconduct in government.”
