DEFERRED FROM 9/24/12

B&F Chair Schoenberger expressed that even though the Legislature decided, by resolution, to award the contract to Brega Transport, he would support the three month extension of the bus contract to ensure that there would be no break in service. He also explained that the Full Legislature has not yet taken action on the County Executive's veto because it was received two hours prior to the last meeting.

Leg. Schoenberger also stated that there is pending litigation the County must be sure to have transportation and he will vote to support the extension to make sure there is no break in service.
