Hood & Grant Honor Organizers Of The Flavors Of Haverstraw Food Crawl

Event involved 14 local restaurants, attracted more than 400 participants

New City, NY (Oct. 8, 2015) – The Rockland County Legislature has honored the organizers of the Flavors of Haverstraw Food Crawl for a successful event that involved 14 village restaurants and attracted more than 400 participants.

“This celebration really helped showcase some of the wonderful things we have going on in the village and I want to recognize the organizers and let them know how appreciative I am of their efforts,” Rockland County Legislature Vice Chairman Jay Hood Jr. (D-Haverstraw) said.

The event was organized by Haverstraw RiverArts and the Village of Haverstraw and held Sept. 20. It featured eateries offering the tastes of Ecuador, Mexico, Puerto Rico, Dominican Republic, New American Casual and French/Latin Fusion.

Legislator Michael Grant (D-Garnerville) also sampled the many great tastes and praised the organizers.

“You did a terrific job of putting together a really special event,” Grant said. “We enjoy the village so much and I invite everyone to come and experience it.”

The following were honored: Anthony Accomando, Andrea Caccuro, Joe Coe, Cat LoBuono, Jared Rodriguez, Joel and Nataly Santana, Richard Sena, and Magda Truchan.

A portion of the sales from the event are to benefit the Haverstraw RiverArts Tile Project, which was created to bring children and adults together in a nature setting to paint the animals of the Hudson River on tiles. The tiles have been fired and glazed and will be installed as a mural for the public to enjoy at a future date.
